

The Forum for Medical Affairs presents...

Nanotechnology in Medicine: The Next Frontier

"Nanotechnology as Enabling Platforms for Personalized Medicine"

Mauro Ferrari, PhD

University Endowed Chair in Biomedical Engineering
Professor and Chairman, Department of Nanomedicine and Biomedical Engineering (nBME)
The University of Texas Health Science Center - Houston

"Nanotechnology, Nanomedicine and Synthetic Biology: An Overview of Ethical and Social Considerations"

C. Christopher Hook, MD

Chair, Non-malignant Hematology Group, Division of Hematology, and Founding Chair, Mayo Clinic Ethics
Council, Mayo Clinic, Rochester, MN

---

For additional information regarding The Forum, please contact William A. Dolan, MD, Forum President, or Brian O.
Foy, Forum Executive Director, via bfoy11@yahoo.com, or at www.osmapandtheforum.org.

Sunday, November 8, 2009

1:00 PM–3:00 PM

George R. Brown Convention Center

Rooms 320 A–E

Adjacent to the Hilton of the Americas

Houston, TX

Immediately following the presentations will be a Q&A Session.

---

All AMA Delegates, Alternate Delegates, AMA
Leadership, State and Specialty Medical Society
Leadership, their respective staffs, other AMA meeting attendees and invited guests are welcome to attend. There is no pre-registration required.

Commercial Support:

Sponsorship provided by Pfizer Inc. and NanoInk, Inc.

In-Kind support is provided by The Forum for Medical Affairs.

This program will not offer Category 1 CME credit.